

Reunion of the Spirit: A Photographer's Journey to Ghana, West Africa
Sir James L. Thornhill, artist
May 1— July 25, 2009

Reunion of the Spirit:
A Photographer's Journey to Ghana, West Africa
Sir James L. Thornhill, artist
May 1— July 25, 2009

Born and raised in Richmond's historic Jackson Ward, Sir James L. Thornhill is a gifted American painter and photographer whose essence is shown in his intimate portraits of dynamic figures, balanced with a backdrop that emphasizes diverse cultural themes relating to African descendants around the world.

Opening Reception: Meet the Artist

Friday, May 1, 2009, 6:00-8:00 p.m.
(Held in conjunction with First Fridays Artwalk)

Youth Photography Workshop

Saturday, June 20, 2009, 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Artist Sir James L. Thornhill will lead a photography workshop for persons 13 to 19 years of age. Space is limited to 12 persons, and registration is required. Contact the Black History Museum & Cultural Center for details.

Photo credit: © Sir James L. Thornhill, 2008

Black History Museum and Cultural Center of Virginia
00 Clay Street, Richmond, VA 23219
call: 804-780-9093 / fax: 804-780-9107
www.blackhistorymuseum.org